

Over mij

Are you an expat woman working in the Netherlands? Or are you a woman working in an international organization?

Woman Whatâ€™s Up offers coaching for specific issues you may struggle with: dealing with the Dutch, bridging (cultural) differences, balancing work-life, confronting with respect, daring to speak out and lead in a way that feels true to you.

I coach, I give workshops and make vlogs to support and inspire female professionals in international settings. To bring out the best of you!
